Want the best deal?

It is vital that prices and usage are scrutinized and managed in these volatile times. Our World Kinect energy experts will do a comprehensive review of your gas and electric bills and conduct a thorough market RFP with our trusted supplier partners.

We will find you the most competitive rates and optimal contract language to meet your business needs.

How World Kinect can help

World Kinect Energy Services is a global leader in electricity and natural gas procurement. We've helped companies of all sizes through unprecedented challenges in the last two years to reduce energy bills and take the difficulty out of procuring utilities.

We have local energy specialists who will manage the process of streamlining your energy costs from start to finish.

This includes:

- Full energy review and advice on energy usage.
- Conducting a comprehensive market analysis and customer/account specific RFP.
- Helping you develop your understanding of the energy landscape and current legislation relevant to your size of business.
- Overseeing and managing the process of switching providers.
- Managing contract terms and recommending future renewals based on market timing and signals.
- Guidance on low carbon and sustainable energy plans.

And, in unstable market conditions, you can rest assured you'll be partnering with a sustainable global business and trusted supplier.
